

The Susquehanna Art Society

The Susquehanna Art Society has been in existence since 1979 and, provides a common meeting ground for artists in the central Susquehanna Valley of Pennsylvania. We seek to increase community awareness in the visual arts of painting, graphics, sculpture, photography, and other traditional and contemporary fine art mediums.

The membership has been drawn largely from practicing artists, both amateur and professional. We also welcome anyone who has an interest in art activities and promotion, but who may not be a working artist.

The Susquehanna Art Society has much to offer. Prior to the Covid pandemic, the following activities were standard (some have been curtailed during these times):

- Meetings on art related subjects including critiques and social opportunities.
- The opportunity to learn about and visit local art exhibits plus an annual fieldtrip to an art museum.
- An opportunity to have your art in our members' gallery on our web page.
- Reduced entry fees to our annual judged art show with monetary awards; plus exclusive member-only shows and sales (occasional entry fee may be required)
- A bi-monthly email newsletter.
- And new in 2022, by showing your up-to-date membership card, you will receive discounts at the following businesses:
 - 15% off framing at the Open Door, Lewisburg
 - 10% off purchases at Brushstrokes, Lewisburg
 - 15% off purchases at Michaels Arts and Crafts, Monroe Marketplace, Selinsgrove
