

The Susquehanna Art Society

The Susquehanna Art Society has been in existence for over 30 years, providing a common meeting ground for artists in the central Susquehanna Valley of Pennsylvania. We seek to increase community awareness in the visual arts of painting, graphics, sculpture, photography, and other traditional and contemporary fine art mediums.

The membership has been drawn largely from practicing artists, both amateur and professional. We also welcome Patron memberships- persons who have an interest in art activities and promotion, but who may not be working artists.

We feel the Susquehanna Art Society has much to offer:

- Several member meetings a year, usually beginning in March. We meet in various places, such as the Y Arts Center in Sunbury, the Degenstein Art Gallery at Susquehanna University in Selinsgrove, members' homes, etc.
- A program, demonstration, or "how-to" sessions at most meetings—on a wide diversity of art related subjects-given by competent and recognized people. If you enjoy critiques of new works, your own or the work of others, we have these, too.
- An opportunity to join bus or van trips to interesting shows, museums and other locales, sponsored by the Society.
- A judged annual art show with monetary awards; exclusive member-only shows (entry fee required)
- Occasional painting field trips or workshops at interesting and/or unusual nearby places.
- The opportunity to have your work on our website: www.susqueartsociety.org

I/we want to join the Susquehanna Art Society. Here are my/our dues for 2019.
